

WHO IT MAY CONCERN

In 2004 as president of Global Water Partnership (GWP) in South America we organized the 10 Latin America Seminar on Public Policies in Water Resources from 21 to 24 of September of 2004 in Brasilia – DF Brazil. In the annex is the event brochure of the event.

This event was organized by GWP and Brazilian Water Resources Association with support from Interamerican Development Bank, World Bank and CEPAL. Other organization wich support with funds were CNPq (National Science Foundation), FINEP (another Funding institution for research), Petrobras, Caixa Economica (Nation bank), and other govern Institution.

Acqua Consultoria had de responsibility in organize the event all aspects: divulgation of the event, preparing the sessions, support the exchange mail and selecting papers, support the fund finding and collecting and all administration of the event during, including the accountability reports for the funding institutions. The support from Acqua was perfect and I recommend their services for this type of the event.
