To Whom It Might Concern

I certify that the organization Acqua Consultoria was hired to organize the Fourth Inter-American Dialogue on Water Management, held in Foz do Iguaçu, Brasil, from September 1 to 5, 2001.

Acqua Consultoria was in charge of organizing fully the event, which means, manage transportation for participants, control the access to the meetings rooms, prepare the inscriptions of the participants, distribute all materials related to the meeting, provide equipment for the presentation and all other activities related to a meeting that counted with over 1,055 participants, as the major water event in the Americas.

The work performed by Acqua Consultoria was excellent and its staff very responsible.
